More about the center

The Cartagena de Indias Convention Center boasts more than 30 years of experience as one of the most important convention centers and congress venues in South America. Year after year, Cartagena’s largest convention center, hosts more than 300 events ranging from government summits to congresses, conferences, trade fairs, exhibitions and spectacular events of all different types and sizes. Our staff and installations work tirelessly day-in, day-out to ensure that all the meetings and events held in our state-of-the-art facilities are an unprecedented success, unlocking untold business opportunities and contacts at both national and international level. Cartagena’s pristine colonial architecture and historical setting offers up a dazzling backdrop to every kind of business meeting or social event.
