More about the center

Kazan Expo International Exhibition Center is one of the largest complexes in Russia. It is distinguished by a favorable geographical location and a developed external infrastructure that ensures the exhibition complex is well accessible to the participants and guests of the events.

Cultural and historical originality of the Republic of Tatarstan makes it possible to bring a special national flavor to any event and give guests the opportunity to get acquainted with the unique traditions of the region.

The exhibition center is suitable for holding large-scale events and can host dozens of thousands of guests at the same time. It has modern exhibition pavilions and state-of-the-art conference facilities. Kazan Expo has everything an organizer may need for events of different kind: from business meetings for several people to conferences and forums with hundreds and thousands of participants.

We will be happy to see you among the organizers, participants, and visitors of the complex. We are eager to provide our guests with comprehensive support and assistance. For more information about the exhibition center and its capabilities, you can leave a request on our website or use the contact details given above. We greatly value all our partners and look forward to our future cooperation.
