More about the center

The Swedish Exhibition & Congress Centre in Gothenburg has been an inspiring venue for meetings of all sizes and kinds for close on a century. It makes no difference whether your meeting is to be a face-to-face board meeting or a world congress with thousands of delegates, when you choose us, you are also choosing to benefit from the experience and know-how we have accumulated. Our venue enjoys an enviable international reputation, and it is selected again and again to host the most prestigious events. The Swedish Exhibition & Congress Centre provides you with a close-knit team that works side by side to achieve a single goal – to create the best possible scope for bringing about a truly successful meeting. We are dedicated to efficiency, service, convenience and safety, and we are with you throughout – from concept to conclusion. You will have access to resources for virtually everything, all gathered together under one roof. This is where people can work, stay and eat in a professional, feel-good atmosphere. And all of Gothenburg’s huge choice of shopping, entertainment and cultural amenities are just around the corner.
