More about the center

In order to give a new impulse to business tourism and the territory economic development, the new Exhibition Centre of 24,000 sqm, divided into 4 halls opened its doors in September 2022, near to the Strasbourg Convention Centre.

Designed by the Japanese architect Kengo Kuma, the Exhibition Centre is both ecologic, economic, aesthetic and urbanistic, thanks to its wood and steel structure, use of local materials, highlight of refined shapes and a mirror game with the surrounding canal.

In relation with the Strasbourg Eurometropolis Climate Plan requirements, the new Exhibition Centre benefits of many environmental organisation. The venues has 4 modulares and multifunctional halls, a 7,000 sqm outdoor forecourt, a nave of more than 2,350 sqm and a car park.

With its location in the heart of the European capital, the event complex formed by the exhibition centre and the Convention Centre, becomes a recognised place to organise national and international congresses and events.
