

Luxembourg will host 2023 AIPC Annual Conference

(Brussels) - AIPC – the Global Association of Convention Centres – announced that its 2023 Annual Congress will take place in Luxembourg (July 16th- 19th 2023).

The Conference will take place in the European Conference Center Luxembourg (ECCL). Home to the European Council meetings, the ECCL is centrally located in the Business district of Luxembourg City with easy access to the city center and the airport thanks to the complimentary public transport system, in place since March 2020.

The Convention Park Luxembourg is one of its distinctive features. As its centerpiece, the ECCL is surrounded by 785 walking distance hotel rooms, numerous restaurants, 2 museums, shopping facilities and a concert hall.

The conference center has a large number of rooms and foyers offering plenty of choice for small or large high-profile business meetings, conferences, conventions, exhibitions and corporate events. The development of technical and technological equipment allows them to host three types of events: physical, hybrid, and 100% virtual.

“We were very impressed by the design of the venue and the innovative approach the ECCL applies when mapping requirements and service offer, by creating a true partnership with AIPC and by involving all local stakeholders, said Sven Bossu, President of AIPC. I am sure attending the 2023 Annual Conference at the ECCL will be a unique experience, combining a high-quality programme with an equally high-quality setting. “

“The ECCL is very proud to welcome in two years the Annual congress of the AIPC; It is a great opportunity for us to gather in our unique Convention center our peers showing our possibilities and know how. Take a seat, live the experience of European Ministers, enjoy our services, taste our gastronomy, discover our Grand Duchy ... and go home with memories to share; We look forward to welcome you in 2023 “—said Patrick Hoffnung – CEO European Convention Center Luxembourg.
