reach. To meet a variety of event needs, Singapore EXPO's event management service teams are ready to provide technical and event support, whether in supporting physical events or assisting in event broadcasting. Helmed by a tech driven culinary team, Kinetic Kitchen delivers customised meals responsibly sourced from local providers, safely prepared to the highest food safety standards to over a thousand guests. As the first MICE facility to receive the Building and Construction Authority (BCA) Green Mark Platinum Standard certification and a trusted venue partner with over twenty years of exhibition and event experience, Singapore EXPO offers elevated experiences through curated and compelling spaces with a touch of nature through abundant use of natural light and greenery. More than just a venue, customers and visitors can expect an extensive repertoire of services beyond event and venue management, with work and leisure options available under one roof.
