More about the center
The Prince George Conference and Civic Centre (PGCCC) opened its doors for business on February 12th, 1994 as Northern British Columbia’s premier meeting and conference venue. Owned and operated by the City of Prince George, this downtown landmark plays a significant role in the economic and business development for the region and serves as a gathering place for numerous community related events and activities.

The PGCCC hosts on average 500 events annually with over 150,000 attendees passing through our doors every year.
